Troy J. Price began his training in Karatedo and Kobudo in 1982 at the Columbia School of Karatedo in West Columbia, SC, under the direction of Hanshi Ridgely Abele. In 1985 he began studying Ju-Jutsu along with his Karatedo training. In 1997 he began studying Baguazhang and Qigong, then in 1999 began his study of Taijiquan and Xingyiquan. Tashi Price trains with several nationally and internationally known instructors in the martial arts of Karatedo, Kobudo, Ju-Jutsu, Chin-Na, Kyusho-Jutsu, Aikido, Wing Chun, Xingyiquan, Baguazhang, Taijiquan & Qigong. He conducts seminars nationally and in Europe and In 2004 he was awarded a international instructor's license to teach Martial Arts worldwide.

Tashi Price is presently doing extensive research on the Kyusho-Jutsu (vital point striking) aspects within Karate and Ju-Jutsu. Tashi Price has authored a two-volume set the Essential Principles of Shuri-Te Ju-Jutsu and is now developing a DVD series on Combative Flow Series, Karate-Jutsu and Ju-Jutsu. Tashi Price has traveled and trained throughout the United States, Europe, Mainland China, Hong Kong and Southeast Asia. He presently serves as the Secretary General for the International Shurite Yudansha-Kai and is the Director of the Shurite Bujutsu-Kai. Tashi Price is a former member of the USA Karate Federation Team pool. He was a member of the first national kata team and second national kumite team to train at the USA Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs. He has competed in many regional, national & international championships, including placing second at the 1985 United States Karate Association World Championships.
